Eden Ridge goes to Planners after packed public hearing

The Bethel Planning Board took responsibility for the fate of the Eden Ridge subdivision last Wednesday night following a well-attended public hearing in the lecture hall at Telstar Regional High School. The Planners have 30 days from the time of the public hearing to make their decision on the subdivision permit requested by the developers. The board next meets Nov. 12, and it is possible the decision will come at that time.

The public hearing seemed in doubt for awhile when an attorney hired by families that oppose lying Eden Lane into the subdivision road suggested the hearing be postponed. "This meeting is entirely out of order," said attorney John Cole, of Auburn.

His reasoning was that, by law, the hearing is not supposed to take place until the permit application is complete. The Eden Ridge application was not complete, he noted, because the fee—of $10 for each planned unit—had not been paid.

It did not take Barry Saxe—the partner of Avery Angevine in Eden Ridge Inc.—more than two minutes to write out and present to the chairman of the Planning Board a check for $500.

Planning Board member Cathy Newell commented, "I would have thought we were shaky starting it (the hearing)." But Chairman John Gray got the consensus of the board, which was to continue the hearing.

Attorney Cole then continued his charges that the hearing was being held contrary to town and state regulations.

He noted that the developers had not presented transparencies with their application; the Planning Board did not have a chronology of the various submissions of plans made by the developers; there was no evidence of a performance bond for the sewer system; there was no evidence of the financial or technical capability of the developers; and there was not the required seven days time following the submission of a completed plan before the public hearing.

The plan was completed just two days before the public hearing, with the acceptance by the sewer commissioners (the Board of Selectmen) of the sewer plan. Mr. Cole also challenged this acceptance, saying the selectmen illegally delegated their responsibility to the consulting firm of Dubois and King to decide on the sewer plan. (See last week's Citizen for the story on the selectmen's acceptance of the sewer plan.)

Mr. Cole told the Planners he represents a group of families calling themselves "Concerned Citizens of Eden Lane." The group is composed of the Wright, Burgess, Mahler, Chapman, Cousins, Vachon, Harrington and Wiese families.

THREE OF THE CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR were in Bethel last week to speak to delegates at the Maine Innkeepers' Association annual conference, held at The Bethel Inn. Above, they ponder a question from a delegate. There were 125 delegates, plus 25 exhibitors, at the conference. Last Monday Sunday River Ski Resort hosted the delegates at a champagne lunch atop Barker Mountain. The group went up on the double chair and enjoyed a fine view of the Bethel area.

Greenwood voters approve warrant articles

Greenwood voters, at a special town meeting last night (Tuesday) unanimously approved the acquisition of two lots adjacent to the former town elementary school and authorized an extra $10,000 for the winter roads account.

There was some discussion about water courses around the school, and it was considered a wise move to have the extra lots as a buffer for the old school well, which supplies good water. The lots were offered to the town by their owner, Alan McNeil, of Canton, for $600 to cover legal fees.

Work on converting the old school into a town office—as authorized by an earlier town meeting—is expected to begin next spring.

The extra money for the winter roads account will come from surplus, town officials said, and will not cause an increase on this year's taxes.

Moderator of the meeting was Raymond W. Seames.

The tax bills are due next week and will reflect a mill rate of $16.90 per $1,000 of assessed valuation. While the mill rate is lower than last year's, the average tax bill will be higher due to the across-the-board increase in valuation in the town.

MSAD #44

Directors' meeting

The SAD #44 Board of Directors met in regular session in the library at Telstar Regional High School on Monday evening of this week.

Naomi T. Lary of West Paris was approved by the directors as a long-term substitute for the remainder of the 1986-87 school year of grade five at Woodstock Elementary School. She holds a B.S. degree in secondary education/social studies area from the University of Maine system. She has taken elementary school methods courses at the University of Maine, Gorham, and the University of South Florida. Professional experience includes teaching kindergarten and also grade five at Nocatee Elementary in Florida; grades 6-8 reading teacher, DeSoto Middle School, Arcadia, Fla.; and grades 6-8 social studies and 9-12 English, SAD #14, Danforth, Maine.

The board awarded the contract for removal of snow at Ethel Bisbee and Crescent Park Schools to B. & G. Construction of Bethel. The hourly rates, including operator, are: Jeep pick-up, $20, and bucket loader, $30. No other bids were received.

The bid of $311 from Gary Savage was accepted for a six cylinder Ford engine that was formerly used in automotive shop classes at Telstar Regional High School. Another bid, for $258, was received from Edward Gammon.

The directors verified that Rea Associates/Architects will be architects for the proposed addition to the Crescent Park School.

A public hearing for the proposed Crescent Park School project will be held Monday evening, Nov. 24, at 7 o'clock in the lecture hall at Telstar Regional High School. If the results of the public hearing are such that it is feasible to continue

West Paris informs Oxford Bank of its needs

The citizens who make up the informal "bank search committee" of West Paris late last week informed Oxford Bank of the specific banking needs of the town. The citizens are looking for a new branch bank to replace the Bethel Savings Bank branch, which is scheduled to close in the spring.

Judy McLaughlin, one of the members of the committee, said the needs of the town were described to bank officials as follows:

- the bank should be a full-service bank;
- it should be open a minimum of three days a week—preferably Wednesday, Thursday and Friday;
- it should be open 10 a.m. to 5 or 6 p.m.;
- it should be open on the 3rd of each month for cashing social security checks.

Bank officials will now discuss the invitation from the town to set up a branch there. Bank vice president Ed Dilworth told The Citizen earlier that his board should have a decision for the town in 30 to 45 days.

The Bethel Savings Bank decided to close its West Paris branch and open a South Paris branch, from which it could serve more communities in the Oxford Hills.

Bethel voting Tuesday at fire station

Polls will be open from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 4 to enable Bethel voters to exercise their franchise in the biennial general election. In addition to casting ballots for candidates, voters will be able to render decisions on 10 issues on a referendum ballot.

W. Paris tax bills out

West Paris tax bills were sent out last Thursday and reflect a modest tax hike, to 24 mills.

Selectman Judy McLaughlin said there was "mass confusion" on the part of residents receiving the bills. This was due to the fact that the bills are computer-generated for the first time this year and recipients of them were not sure which number was the number to pay. "My phone just rang constantly," said Selectman McLaughlin.

The billing was done by SLF Associates, of Canton. The bills can be paid with no interest charges through Dec. 1.

Sunday River ready to open season

Sunday River Ski Resort is placing the finishing touches on the $3 million summer expansion. The Newry resort anticipates making snow as soon as the weather permits. Burt Mills, operations manager, says, "Skiers are anxious to start sking after the early snowfalls in September and October. We'll be open as soon as possible on as much terrain as possible."

This summer's expansion has made Sunday River's snowmaking system the largest in Maine and New Hampshire in terms of total number of acres covered. Sunday River will be able to cover 220 acres, 80 percent of the area's skiable terrain. At maximum efficiency, the system will produce 9.37 tons of snow per minute through 12 1/2 miles of on-trail pipe. Last season, Sunday River snowmakers made over 478,000 tons of snow enabling Sunday River skiers to ski 167 days from November to May. The U.S. Ski Team has designated Sunday River an "Official Training Site," one of only six resorts in the U.S., because of the resort's reputation for early season snow conditions and excellent slalom and giant slalom terrain on the Monday Morning Trail. The ski team will be training at Sunday River Dec. 2-7.

Sunday River has installed a new ski report telephone number, (207) 824-6400, for up to the minute information on snowmaking operations, anticipated opening date and ski conditions.

The residents of Sudbury Village will not be greeting Halloween visitors this year. They will be making a contribution to UNICEF. Happy & Safe Halloween.

NLRB decision likely to go against union

The attorney for Local 900 of the United Paperworkers International Union told the press earlier this week preliminary decisions by the NLRB (National Labor Relations Board) on two cases the union raised against Boise Cascade are against the union.

The two cases in question involve whether or not Boise Cascade prematurely declared the ruptured contract talks with the union at impasse and whether the action of Boise guards in a fracas with strikers in Mexico incited the strikers to continue to reject Boise's final offer.

Should the NLRB find in favor of the union charges on either case, there would be justification for having Boise take back the more than 300 union workers who were replaced by permanent replacements during the course of the 76-day strike.

An NLRB official told The Citizen the final decision should be known Friday.

Only about one-third of all cases filed with the NLRB are found to have any validity, an NLRB official told The Citizen.

The strike started July 1, after the old contract ran out. The union membership was asked if they wanted to extend it for 10 days in order to continue the negotiations. The vote was overwhelmingly to go on strike.

Soon thereafter Boise declared the talks at an impasse and began hiring replacement workers. After Boise agreed to guarantee the old grievance procedure, the union membership, on Sept. 14, voted to accept the new contract. But 342 strikers, of nearly 1,200 in the union, had already been replaced.

Some of those who lost their jobs have been meeting with an attorney and are considering bringing charges against the union leadership for not adequately representing all the membership. The replacement workers have all joined the union.

Opinions

Be sure to read the fine print

In addition to voting for state and local candidates next Tuesday, voters will be asked to approve or disapprove eight bond issues. Bond issues are generally written in an inoffensive manner, making it all too easy to approve them without thinking.

Here are some things to think about, though, before you go into the voting booth. The state already has $289,830,000 in outstanding and unpaid bond obligations from previous bond issues. With the interest on these bonds included, Maine residents—and their children and grandchildren—already owe $417,248,577. Additionally, voters have authorized another $83,610,000 in bonds not yet issued. Including bonds that can be issued by various state agencies, the total amount for bonds authorized but not yet issued is $169,545,944. Thus, the total bonded indebtedness of the state, if all authorized bonds are issued, will be $586,794,521.

If voters approve all the bond issues on this year's ballot, it will add another $85,800,000 in principal plus $22,623,750 in interest to the state's indebtedness.

Are the bond issues worth it? Most are not.

The first bond issue asks for $16,000,000 for construction and renovation of state correctional facilities. It does not indicate how many new cells would be constructed; it does not indicate where they would be constructed; it does not indicate whether the state has given up hope on housing the less violent state prisoners in county jails. The voters are being asked for $16,000,000 for prison reform but are not being told exactly how the state is going to implement the reforms. The bond issue should be voted down.

The second issue would provide $12,000,000 to the Commissioner of Environmental Protection for him to expend as he sees fit to aid local communities with problems involving sewer systems and salt piles. The Legislature should have taken care of this matter when passing the budget. Nevertheless, it is important to provide more money to communities to alleviate sewer and salt pile problems. The measure should be passed.

The third bond issue seeks to raise $6 million for school construction purposes. The money would be divided as follows: $5 million would go towards state support for building new local schools; $1 million would go towards building a new activity building at AMHI (Augusta Mental Health Institute). This is a traditional purpose of state bonds, and a worthwhile one. The bond issue should be passed.

The fourth bond issue seeks to raise $6 million to find asbestos in state buildings and to remove it. This is a fishing expedition at public expense. The state should find the asbestos problems with money from the various departmental budgets. When all the problem areas are identified, then the time would be right to approach the electorate for money to have the asbestos removed by the experts who do that work. The issue should be voted down.

The fifth bond issue asks voters for $10 million to help coastal communities. This bond issue reads like a motherhood and apple pie program for protecting the coastal environment. In reality it is taxing the poorer inland communities of the state to aid the richer coastal communities of the state. The $10 million would be mostly used to improve harbors and ferry service in the affluent coastal communities. Less than one-third of the $10 million would be used to purchase shoreland for public access. This is probably the sneakiest issue on the ballot and should be voted down. Even the Legislature was embarrassed to have this on the ballot.

The sixth bond issue asks voters to authorize $3,100,000 for expanding and renovating National Guard armories in the state. Since the federal government is removing state control over the National Guard, the federal government should also take over all costs of maintaining and rehabilitating the armories. The issue should be voted down.

The seventh bond issue asks voters to put another $5 million into the Maine Inland Fisheries and Wildlife Acquisition Fund. Using this fund, the commissioner of the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife acquires lands and water rights to help wildlife in wintering, resting, feeding and nesting. The areas could be deer yards, salt marshes, freshwater marshes, stream borders, nesting islands, abandoned farms, etc. It is a proper use of public funds and public borrowing and should be passed.

The last bond issue asks voters to authorize borrowing $7,700,000 to provide funds for various projects at the various campuses of the University of Maine. Much of the money will be spent on upgrading library facilities. Other amounts will go to the fine arts program at USM and the child ed program at UMF. While the Legislature should have dealt with these budgets during the regular session, nevertheless the money is needed by the university system and the issue should be passed.

In general, the bond issues indicate a laziness on the part of the Legislature to tackle tough issues. When faced with a question of whether to tax the voters for new services, the Legislature is too quick to defer action and place the issue on the ballot as a bond question. As noted above, many of the bond questions should be defeated and sent right back to the Legislature. bfw

Christmas Caravan '86

Christmas Caravan '86 is a project to help children to believe in Santa and parents to believe that people still care enough to help.

Last year Nina Wheeler packed for 79 children plus parents, about 40 children from the Bethel area. Nina had many helpers.

All requests for boxes should go to Clearing House, Christmas caravan, P.O. Box 1460, Portland, Maine 04104. The deadline is Nov. 15. Any requests postmarked after that but before Dec. 5 will be filled according to availability of items. After that it will be emergency requests.

To apply for caravan boxes write to above address indicating need. Include names, ages and sizes of all children in the family. Indicate whether children in the family are stepchildren, foster children, etc.

Two references must be listed giving names, addresses, and phone numbers. References should be town officials, a social worker, doctor or nurse or clergy.

Anyone who is approved will receive a card in the mail. Therefore you will not have to worry whether or not you were approved. Caravan holds off sending out boxes too early so that there can be a better variety of items in all the boxes.

Any donations can be sent to the above address or sent to Nina Wheeler. Also anyone wanting to help please feel free to contact Nina Wheeler.

A note from the publisher

Election campaigns place a special responsibility on a local newspaper. While candidates try to meet and influence as many voters as possible by shaking hands, passing out flyers, taking out advertisements and appearing at public forums, it still rests with the local newspaper to try to understand the why's and wherefore's of each candidate and pass on this information to the public prior to election. (The newspaper inherits this task because candidates usually make special efforts to explain their positions to the newspaper.)

That is why candidates for office are always so keen to win endorsements from newspapers. Not that endorsements from newspapers mean winning elections. (In fact there seems to be little correlation between winning a newspaper's endorsement and winning an election. But it is a nice trophy for a candidate to wave in front of his or her opponent.)

The Citizen has never endorsed candidates and will not do so in this election. (Although we do present editorial opinions on referendum issues—we have in the past and we do again this week.) Nevertheless, having listened to numerous candidates and their supporters in recent weeks, I thought I might pass on my impressions.

In the governor's race: I wish one candidate really stuck out above the rest. That doesn't seem to be the case, although, of the four, Sherry Huber seems the most clear-minded and concerned. Huber is an interesting and tough-minded lady, with some good ideas on education and economic development. I'm dismayed that she seems to have little organizational strength and no financial backing. She is funding her campaign mostly from her family's bank account. A politician, to be effective, needs friends willing to help out.

John McKernan, when I close my eyes and listen to him, sounds like one of the Kennedy's. When I look at him standing with his wrist bent at his waist, he looks like one of the Kennedy's. But he's not a Kennedy—a clan known for strong beliefs. McKernan seems to have no strong beliefs and can be found at various times on various sides of an issue. Before the GOP state convention, he seemed to be against the so-called "anti-obscenity" referendum. When right-wing candidate Porter Leighton endorsed the referendum, McKernan seemed to feel he could not do less and also endorsed it. After it failed miserably at the GOP convention, McKernan continued to praise the proposed legislation, which could have made it a crime to own a birth control book explaining sexual intercourse. Only after the electorate overwhelmingly turned thumbs down on the measure did he back away from it. Having McKernan as governor would also put at risk every Mainer in the National Guard, because he would allow the Guard to be sent to the war zone of central America.

John Menario looks to me like an earnest beagle hound. I'm tired of hearing about all the wonderful things he did for Portland 15 years ago and promises of all the wonderful things he would do for the state. As Jim Tierney says, Menario would make a good staff person for a governor.

Speaking of Jim Tierney, I don't know if he's unprincipled or just careless. He certainly lost the respect of most local people a couple of months ago, when he came to a church supper in Bethel by way of Rumford. While in the neighborhood, he visited the paperworkers' picket line around Boise Cascade and made a donation to the strikers. The state's highest law enforcement officer cannot become a player in a contest that he might be called upon to judge. If he can't observe the requirements of his present office, he doesn't deserve to move up to the governorship.

You may be interested to know that the gubernatorial candidates have paid close attention to the Bethel area during their campaigns. Editor John Brown and I have interviewed three of them at The Citizen (Tierney, McKernan and Huber). In addition, Tierney, Huber and Menario have been in Bethel at other times for various campaign functions. Mrs. Tierney has also been in town by herself, campaigning for her husband, as well as watching her son play soccer against Gould. Huber, Menario and McKernan were again in town last week to address the 125 delegates at the Maine Innkeepers' Association conference at The Bethel Inn. (See the story in last week's Citizen.)

In the Congressional race, I have not seen Olympia Snowe or Richard Charette in town so can offer no first-hand impressions of either. I can tell you I find Snowe's voting record appalling. She voted for high-level nuclear waste dumps (one of which may yet wind up in Maine); she voted for Gramm-Rudman to allow herself to claim no responsibility for the federal budget; she voted for protectionism, which will create higher prices for consumer goods and a smaller market for U.S. exports; she voted to fuel the U.S.-backed war in central America against a country that we have not declared war against. It is hard to imagine how anyone could compile a worse voting record. Nevertheless, since she has no opposition to speak of, she'll no doubt be re-elected. My own feeling is that she does not represent the will of the majority of the people in our Congressional district. But as long as no one is willing to run against her, we're stuck with her.

In state senate races, the towns of Greenwood south are lucky to be represented by Don Twitchell. He is bright, energetic, and understands politics. That may be why he's unopposed for re-election. Almost singlehandedly he solved the problem the Greenwood-Woodstock transfer station was having with the state Board of Environmental Protection.

In the other state senate district in our area—Bethel north—Ed Erwin is likable and responsive to constituent complaints. He has no particular program to speak of, however, and does not show the same sort of energy that Don Twitchell does. Nevertheless, since Erwin is opposed by a complete unknown, Russ Black, his re-election seems likely.

In the state representative races: The most interesting race in our area seems to be the one between incumbent Jeff Mills and challenger Tom Winsor, fighting it out in a stretched-out district that extends up to Rangeley. The two are quite distinct in their political philosophies, with Jeff believing that government should actively intervene to improve the life of its citizens and Tom believing that government should let private enterprise operate as it sees fit, which, in the long run, will assure the common good. Philosophies aside, however, I look at Jeff's constituent work. His record is simply outstanding. I have been quite amazed to find Jeff at the smallest gatherings whenever local people have called upon him for help or advice. He has also made major contributions to the area by convincing the state Department of Transportation to undertake the roadbuilding projects in Newry. He obviously enjoys his job, and I, for one, think he's awfully good at it. Tom Winsor is an intelligent and energetic man and I'd like to be able to vote for him sometime. Unfortunately he's running against someone who has compiled an excellent record of service to the communities he serves.

In Greenwood, voters can stick with Joe Walker, who has done nothing for the community or for the state, as far as I can see, or they can opt for a change, with Roland Sutton, who at least is going around and talking with residents.

In Woodstock, incumbent Francis Perry faces a challenge from Louis Cayer. The district lines are poorly drawn. Both candidates are from the Rumford/Mexico part of the district, which has problems much different from Woodstock. Woodstock seems to be the loser in this race.

West Paris voters have a chance to vote for a woman who has been a help to generations of area residents needing help from the Register of Deeds office. Former register Olive Moore faces newcomer Dana Hanley in the contest for the House seat that encompasses the district towns of Buckfield, Hebron and Paris, in addition to West Paris. I think Mrs. Moore will serve the communities as well as a representative as she did as register of deeds.

Andover is served by Phyllis Erwin, who, like her husband, has been responsive, though not particularly creative. She is opposed by Randy Hotham, like the incumbent, also from Rumford.

Speaking of Andover, the woman who annually organizes (with some help from her friends) Olde Home Day is seeking the job of register of probate. Jane Rich, a former selectman of Andover, faces Ted Tracy, formerly of Andover and now of Norway. Jane has done well as a public servant. Ted is a nice man who has never run for public office. I give the nod to Jane.

In the other contested county race, Vern Maxfield and Gayla Sue Pulkkinen are battling it out for register of deeds. Mrs. Pulkkinen is well-known and well-respected in our area, and this will probably assure her victory around here anyway.

As is said at every election, if you want to have some say in your future, you'd best vote next Tuesday. If you really don't care who wins, you have little reason to complain later on if your elected official turns out to be a dud.

If you're like me, you're feeling unjustly confused by the referendum question concerning local measured service. The telephone company and its friends say the measure will take away freedom of choice. And certainly none of us wants to lose freedom of choice.

But that's not what the referendum question suggests. All it says is that the phone company will not be allowed to institute mandatory local measured service. The phone company would still be allowed to offer local measured service if the referendum question becomes law.

The proposed law also states that if more than 25 percent of users opt for local measured service, it will indicate that the flat rate is too high. (The argument is that the flat rate service is the standard service, and the rate should be attractive enough to maintain at least 75 percent of the users on the flat rate.)

If the referendum question passes, it seems to me, the effect will not be to ban local measured service, but to hinder the phone company from raising its flat rate to the point where people feel they must choose local measured service. It's a cumbersome law, and possibly illegal, but I'm going to vote for it.

The Citizen will have the vote totals in next week's paper. See you at the polls.

SEWING FOR PROFIT WORKSHOP

The SAD #44 Adult and Community Education program and the Cooperative Extension Service will co-sponsor a one-session workshop on Sewing for Profit on Thursday, Nov. 6, at 7 p.m. at Telstar Regional High School. Wendy Legg Pollack, Extension agent and Donna McCarragher will be the presenters.

The workshop will provide information for people interested in or already involved with sewing for profit. Topics covered will include guidelines for establishing prices, attracting customers, laws governing the sale of home-sewn crafts, and other business management tips.

There is no charge for this program but pre-registration is encouraged to insure that the workshop will be offered. Please call the SAD #44 Adult and Community Education office, 824-2780, to enroll.

Daylight time to return first Sunday in April

Maine Senator George Mitchell said last week that one of the finest pieces of legislation enacted in the 99th Congress was one extending Daylight Saving Time an additional three weeks in the spring of the year.

"Extending daylight savings time represents tremendous advantages to the United States in terms of energy savings, decreased traffic fatalities, reduction in violent crime, and more hours for Americans to spend outdoors," Mitchell said. Beginning in 1987, Daylight Saving Time will start the first Sunday in April, rather than on the last Sunday of the month. It will continue to end on the last Sunday in October each year.

"On April 5, 1987, Maine residents will surely welcome the start of Daylight Saving Time," the senator said. "After a long, cold winter, the thought of lower energy bills and more productive evening hours will warm the hearts of many people."

Although the original legislation also extended Daylight Saving Time in the fall, a compromise worked out with mid-western senators extended DST only in the spring. That compromise assured that no part of the country would experience sunrises any later than sunrises already occurring in August and September under the current system. This satisfied concern about the safety of school-children in some parts of the country who would be leaving for school in the darkness of the early morning hours.

Daylight Saving Time ended this year on Sunday, Oct. 26. In 1987 it will end on Sunday, Oct. 25.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

You do have a choice in the Legislative District 49 on Nov. 4.

Your incumbent legislator voted to increase our taxes, helping to give us the highest taxes in New England. His vote last session to add 2 percent to the sales tax on food and lodging has hurt this area which depends on tourism.

At the same time this vote paid for an increase in his legislative salary of 30 percent!! Did you get a 30 percent pay raise last year!!

He also continued to support legislation which has wiped out local control of education. With his support, teachers' salaries have been mandated by the state, rather than left to the local school subjects and services have been mandated by the Legislature, without the funding to pay for them, causing our property taxes to rise.

And your incumbent legislator has voted consistently to increase business regulation, votes which end up hurting the working man when industries move or expand elsewhere in states where encourage economic development.

I doubt that incumbent Jeff Mills has represented your thinking on these as well as other issues. That fact, combined with his decision to go to law school in Portland instead of giving you the full-time representation you need in Augusta, gives you plenty of reason to elect a new representative this year.

On Nov. 4 you can vote to allow Representative Mills to seek his education full time and elect a new representative who has had the experience and time to be an effective legislator for District 49.

I urge you to vote for Tom Winsor for State Representative. Tom is well known in Augusta where he represented the Oxford Hills Chamber of Commerce in working for better workman's compensation laws. A real estate professional, Tom gave up his business for public service in 1982, and accepted an appointment with the General Services Administration to work for President Reagan.

Tom worked closely with Porter Leighton of Harrison to effectively streamline the GSA and save us money. They actually improved services while reducing staff by 50 percent. That's the kind of efficiency and leadership we need in Augusta!

I am sure you agree. I know Tom Winsor. I know he'll be an effective voice for you in the Legislature. I need him to join with me to help improve the situation in Augusta. Please give him your strongest support, and your vote on Nov. 4.

Edward L. Dexter (R-Kingfield)
House District 55

To the Editor:

As a member of the Sportsman Alliance of Maine (SAM), I would like to remind the voters of District 49 that SAM gave Representative Jeff Mills an A-rating based on his fine record in the legislature on issues of concern to the sportsman. This rating was based on hunting and fishing issues as well as on environmental votes. Rep. Mills is a friend of the Maine hunter and fisherman and all others who value our way of life.

Donald E. Feeney

To the Editor:

In 1974, Maine voters elected Jim Longley the first independent governor in history. Much has been made of that election by the independent candidates in this year's gubernatorial race. But Longley's election did not start a trend, and an independent is very unlikely to win in 1986.

Those voters who are leaning to Sherry Huber should keep this in mind. Sherry Huber has taken strong and laudable stands on environmental, social and economic issues, but she is very much a long shot in the four way race. Mrs. Huber's supporters must think seriously about the power of their votes. If they truly support her positions, and think the next governor should share her opinions on a nuclear-free Maine, a clean environment, child care and gender issues, and a strong but fair economy, they should cast their votes for Jim Tierney.

Jim Tierney holds many of the same views as Mrs. Huber on important issues for Maine, and Jim Tierney is the candidate most likely to defeat John McKernan. I urge you to weigh the possibilities carefully and realistically and on Nov. 4, to cast your ballot for Jim Tierney—for Maine.

Robin Lee
Bethel

To the Editor:

During the past few weeks I have gone door-to-door throughout District 49 and have been able to visit old friends and make new acquaintances, and listen to concerns on a wide variety of issues. I feel that working for the interests of the people of District 49 for the past three years has been a privilege, and a job that I love. Many important issues face our area and our state and I hope to work with the citizens of our area to address them. This campaign season has given me the opportunity to experience the diversity of western Maine and gain the chance to talk with people in their homes and doorways. I hope to continue to work for this area in the Legislature and ask for your support on Election Day, Nov. 4.

CANADIAN BOARDING SCHOOLS RECEPTIONS IN PORTLAND & LEWISTON

There will be a unique opportunity for the residents of southern and central Maine on the evenings of Nov. 4 and 5. Four of the premier college preparatory schools in eastern Canada will be introducing themselves to area families at receptions to be held in Portland and Lewiston on Nov. 4 and at the Admissions Lounge of Bates College in Lewiston on Nov. 5. Both receptions will be from 7-10 p.m. All with an interest in education will find the evenings worthwhile.

Bishop's College School in Lennoxville, Quebec has been educating youngsters for over 150 years. Bishop's, with an enrollment of close to 300 students, on a lovely 500 acre campus, has long attracted students from all over the world. RCS-Netherwood was also founded in the last century. The name is the result of a merger in 1984 of two schools begun in 1877 and 1894. A school of 140, RCS-Netherwood is situated on 140 acres in a village near Saint John in New Brunswick, the only officially bilingual province in Canada.

Of the four, Sedbergh, in Montebello, Quebec, some 50 miles west of Montreal, is in the most rural area. Here, amid 600 acres of wooded hills, a pioneer spirit prevails. Founded in 1938, Sedbergh is a school of 90 boys that stresses self-reliance along with strong academics.

Stanstead College is truly on our northern border. The village is within sight of the American and Canadian customs offices. One hundred fifty students, quite a few from the states and abroad develop their potential in a school founded in 1872.

Each school has differences but each is committed to a high quality of education and to instilling in its students moral and ethical values. Each has a fine record of college placement both in Canada and the United States and students are prepared to take SATs as well as other exams. Of particular significance in this time of rapidly rising costs of education in this country, is the fact that fees at the schools run in the neighborhood of $8,000, as much as $4,000 less than at equivalent schools in New England.

These receptions on Nov. 4 and 5 mark the first time that Canadian schools have made a concerted effort to become known to families here in Maine. Those of you who come to meet the administrators and students of these schools will be rewarded for the experience.

Hanover

By DONNA WORCESTER

The Halloween party will be at the Knights of Pythias Hall in Hanover Friday, Oct. 31. The event is for all area children and will start at 7 p.m., ending at 8:30. Workers hope that children will be accompanied by an adult. Refreshments will be served, there will be games and costume contest with prizes for most original, scariest and funniest. The best adult costume will also receive a prize. Thursday at 4 p.m., the hall will be decorated for the party and anyone who can help is welcome. This year the party is sponsored in part by Oxford Bear Lodge and the Town of Hanover.

Boy Scout Troop 509, Rumford Point, attended a camporee at Black Mountain in Rumford. Attending from Troop 509 were Shannon Couture, Brian Pingree, Mark McPherson, Gary Godbois and Bob McPherson. Accompanying the boys were Bob McPherson and Spencer Couture. With nine troops attending, Troop 509 was in third place in camping competition.

Senior Girl Scout Troop 904 is planning a trip to Florida next February. Several fund raisers are planned to help finance the trip. On Nov. 22 there will be a tag day at Abbott Farm Plaza in Rumford and Nov. 28 there will be a bottle drive. Senior Girl Scout leaders are Diane Milligan and Karen Wight.

Junior Girl Scout Troop 800, Rumford Point, attended a showing of State America in Portland on Thursday, Oct. 16. Attending were Sarah Cohen, Stephanie Couture, Kati Holtzman,

Songo Pond

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bond, also known to the locals as 2535, of Hull, Mass., were evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Lapham to watch the World Series. Recent callers of the Bonds on Becker Mountain included Phyllis and Norton Cross, Don and Roberta Morin and children.

Jessica Strand, Amy Downs, Amiee Kaulback, Mrs. Linda Couture and Mrs. Kathleen Holtzman. Special thanks to Mrs. Holtzman for driving the girls.

Daisy Girl Scout Troop 783 of Hanover had their first field trip on Monday, Oct. 20. The girls went to the Korhonen farm in West Bethel to watch a cider mill in operation. They were treated to free samples. Attending were Melissa Thibodeau, Stacy Swan, Kirsten Milligan, Kirsten Newell, Jessica Couture and Jenny Worcester. Going with the girls were Daisy leader Debbie Swan; assistant leader Jennifer Turner and Mrs. Linda Couture. In appreciation for a pleasant visit, a food basket was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Korhonen.

In a previous report about the pre-nuptial shower for Barbara Merrill at the Hanover Town House on Oct. 10, we inadvertently omitted the names of the following folks who were among those sending gifts but unable to attend: Rita Wilson, Polly Davis, Alberta Merrill, Pat Donovan, Wendy Ford, Lynda Chandler, Carol Fiske, Karlene Bachelder, Sue Cross, Brenda Tulko and Boots Morton.

By HARRIETT STOWELL

Colleen Boyd and her mother, Frances Bennett were in Woodsville, N.H., to attend a family birthday celebration recently. They also visited Mrs. Bennett's sister, Evelyn Aremburg in Haverhill, N.H.

Bill Mitchell of Putney, Vt., spent the past weekend as a guest of his mother-in-law, Maxine Lovejoy.

George and Harriett Stowell were in West Paris on Friday to visit Mildred York at her home and Thelma Brett and George Mason at Chapel Valley Boarding Home.

Work is progressing well on Ann Mason's new garage which will replace the one destroyed in a fire a few weeks ago. Alanson Lovejoy was a lucky hunter last week, bagging a six to seven hundred pound moose in the Rangeley area.

Mrs. Ava Bessey of Bryant Pond called on Maxine Lovejoy one day last week. Cathryn Lovejoy, Ruby Rolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Alanson Cummings spent the day last Monday in North Conway shopping.

The Charles Cousens family, former missionaries to Peru, will be at the Sunday morning service at the Pleasant Valley Bible Church on Nov. 2. A potluck fellowship dinner will follow the service and the Cousens will be there in the evening also.

COUNTY REPUBLICANS MEET

The Oxford County Republican Committee was entertained by the Bethel Republican Town Committee last week at the Bethel Lions Den.

Candidates introduced by Chairwoman Nancy Sutton were: Vern Maxwell, Register of Deeds; Ted Tracy, Register of Probate; Russell Black, State Senator, District 8; Tom Winsor, House of Representatives, District 49; Roland Sutton, House of Representatives, District 50; Dan Hanley, House of Representatives, District 51. Funds were voted by the committee for these candidates.

The Oxford County Republican headquarters are open on Main Street in Norway, next to Longley's. Information or supplies may be received at that location. People were urged to get their political signs on lawns and roadsides.

A report was given on the success of the Norman K. Ferguson Sr. dinner.

A nomination committee was named as follows: Barbara D. Brown, Nancy Sutton, Phil Andrews, Mae Wight, Carolyn Kennard, and Vern Maxwell. Applause was given to Chef Gene Buswell for the delicious meal.

The next meeting of the county committee will be at the South Paris Fire Hall on Dec. 2.

Getting nearer and nearer to Halloween and goblin time. Another week and the kids, and some that aren't kids, will be dressing up and calling on folks for trick or treat. I pray all have a good holiday and no razors or anything to hurt children are put in apples or candy or whatever they are given for treats. I was watching a program this week where it showed the children going out for treats on Halloween and then going to a hospital to have their goodies X-rayed before going home. As the grandfather said, "Times have sure changed." That was something that didn't have to be watched so closely when we were kids but we didn't go trick or treat as they do today. Living back on a farm and not too many near neighbors was one reason we didn't go out much and another was the chores each one of us had to perform every morning and night. We didn't have the free time on our hands that the kids do today and maybe we were better off that way. I sometimes think so, anyway. Russell had a time with the virus that is going around last weekend but we tried to make our neighbor think it was from going to the harvest supper at West Paris Grange. Have to pester her a little once in awhile and she was the one who invited us to go. He just had to lay low for a day or so and eat lightly to get over it. Lots of folks have had it and it doesn't bring any fun with it.

Had my little girls to care for last Friday forenoon while their mother was at a meeting in Norway. They were good and helped wait on Uncle Joe if they could. Maybe they helped him get better faster, who knows?

He was feeling better on Saturday but still not quite up to par. My foster daughter, Helen Strout, and a niece by marriage came to visit us. They stayed to lunch before going on to yard sales and flea markets. After lunch and company gone, Russell said he felt up to driving to town so went to get groceries and shopped other stores a little. We came home with a few things I thought we could use.

Sunday was a busy day as Russell and I canned 15 pints of tomatoes. In the afternoon, Wynona, Michael and the girls came and stayed for supper. Kariann was going to stay for a day or so with me but felt bad when the others left so Nana had to play with her and get her in a good mood again. Nona had brought cloth to make a clown suit for Courtney to have for the nursery school contest and Nana has wound up making it. It is cute and hope Courtney likes it.

Took Kariann to the doctor with me on Monday and he treated her a little. She was having a little trouble with her gross motor skills, but has improved a great deal, for which we are grateful.

Kariann and I napped after lunch as we planned to go to Grange in the evening. She didn't enjoy the folks like Courtney always has. She is a little shy and doesn't take to strangers as Cori does. Such a difference in the two girls, but I love them both so much. Wynona had to come to Norway Tuesday afternoon so brought Courtney up and left her; then Michael came for the girls after he got out of work. Kariann was glad to see her sister and then Daddy.

Wednesday was a busy day for me. I did sewing for most of the forenoon as well as a load of washing. After lunch, I started working on my African violets and they needed a lot of work. Mary Lovejoy came down with a violet she had and I took the plants in the pot apart and put them into new pots. There were nine plants in that one pot. I had never separated one that had that many crowns before, but it is done and they will have a chance to start up fresh and new. Mary said she was glad she hadn't attempted to do it. I was glad she had with the plant and got some of the little plants to start for myself. They are a beautiful light pink and I didn't have one of that color so have added to my collection.

Rather a dreary day today, Thursday, but I didn't care as I had to take my car to the garage to have them find what was making a noise that shouldn't be there.

I found there are more things the car needs but can't do it all at once as the dollars I have aren't rubber and won't stretch far enough. Had a hose replaced today as well as the noise taken care of and the rest will wait till a little later. Always something wrong if one has a car or at least that is the way it seems. I was at the garage a lot longer than I thought I would be but it couldn't be helped. Russell was working on a project in the shed out back and hopes his painting was good enough for it to be done. We also moved some of the furniture around in the living room so I could have a stand by the back window to use for some plants. Hope they will do as well as they do in the bow window.

Doing my writing tonight as I have to head out early tomorrow for an appointment with a doctor in Lewiston. Expect to bring the girls home with us for the remainder of the day and their mother will get them later as she expects to have a full day of work in Buckfield helping type reports for a former employer.

Rained some today and still cloudy to-

CROSS COUNTRY QUILTERS TO MEET NOV. 3

There will be a potluck supper and slide presentation of New England Images II Quilt Show, Monday, Nov. 3, at 6 p.m. Anyone interested in quilting and joining the Cross Country Quilters Guild is cordially invited. The supper will be at the home of Carole Crandall, Park St., Bethel. Bring a covered dish or salad and any items for a "show and tell." Cross Country Quilters is a member of The Pine Tree Quilters Guild. For more information call Ginny Keniston, 824-2661.

night. Got a phone call a short time ago and was told that my niece's daughter has a new baby girl. Congratulations to Debbie and Gary Dyer of Otisfield on the birth of Elizabeth Alice. Also congratulations to Debbie's grandparents, Lawrence and Grace Yates. I'm sure it will be loved by all the family members, Gary's and Deborah's, alike.

Take care one and all and do watch out for the goblins and ghosts this week.

A Bible study class was held Monday morning at the home of Sue Wight. After the class, Gilberte Seeley was given a surprise birthday party, as Oct. 24 was her 79th birthday. Present besides the hostess and honored guest were Susan Bowie, June Swan, Olive Anderson, Sylvia Wight, Freda Robertson and James Anderson. Mrs. Seeley received gifts. The birthday cake was made and decorated by Susan Bowie.

Gilberte Seeley was surprised again Monday afternoon when she was invited to Louise Tetley's to another birthday party. Attending besides the honored guest and hostess were Sylvia Wight, Nancy Wight, June Swan, Olive Anderson, Karlene Bachelder, Betsy Clark, Thelma Lowery, Beatrice Lowell, Eleanor Morton and Gretchen Wight. Refreshments were served by the hostess. The cake was made by Karlene Bachelder. Gil is very grateful for the parties and gifts.

Teresa Toti, Marge Wheeler and Rose Enos, Rhode Island, were recent guests of Gilberte Seeley. While here they went to Sunday River, where Teresa won a pair of ski boots and straps.

Louise Tetley, Gilberte Seeley, Thelma Lowery, Betsy Clark, Beatrice Lowell, June Swan, Olive Anderson, Eleanor Morton and Bessie Ettl were in Rumford bowling October 22. Louise Tetley was high scorer on the triple string and tied with Thelma Lowery for the single. After bowling the ladies had lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hunter, Tafton, Pa., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wight and visited relatives and friends in the area.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Wight, Paul Wight, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hunter were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wight and Gretchen recently. Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wight and Mr. and Mrs. Hunter were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wight, Rumford, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hunter called on Amy and Roger Hanscom Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brooke, Samantha and Katie, Augusta, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Wight, while Mr. and Mrs. Brooke attended the 15th reunion of the class of '71, Telstar Regional High School.

Samantha and Gail Brooke, Augusta, Jennifer and Christopher Bowie, Seneca and Amber Brooke, Newry, were supper guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Wight, Saturday evening.

Bible study is held at the home of Sue Wight each Monday morning at 10. Anyone wishing to attend is invited to come.

The selectmen have appointed Willard Wight to act as their representative to sit with the SAD #44 budget committee while preparing the FY88 school budget.

By OLIVE DAVIS

Ellsworth Hathaway is home from the hospital and is able to be up and dressed we are glad to report.

Escher Davis took me to Bridgton Sunday afternoon to see Mr. and Mrs. Gary Andrews and baby who were home for a 10-day vacation from Oregon. Gary is an electrician and will be returning to his work next week.

Kay Billings had an eye implant this week. Dr. Tchao, in Lewiston, was her doctor.

Richard Felt and his group have been playing at various places. They were in Berlin at a nursing home where they entertained Chester Hayes' aunt there. She is 105 years old. They also played at Rumbold.

Carl Brooks danced his dolls at the Rumbold Grange this last Saturday.

Frank Knox and his group entertained the patients at Ledgeview Memorial Home Sunday, Oct. 26.

Several from here attended the supper and dance at West Summer Grange Hall Saturday evening. Lenwood Andrews group played at the dance after supper to a crowded hall.

Mrs. Lettie Brooks and Olive Davis attended the Grange at Bryant Pond Monday night. They had scrambled officers night.

"SOCIAL" A SUCCESS

The Afternoon Social held on Oct. 21 to benefit the Girls' Staters by the American Legion Auxiliary of the Jackson-Silver Post in Locke Mills was declared a success by those attending. Much of the thanks for that success was due to the generosity of the local merchants who gave gifts and gift certificates which were used as prizes.

Appreciation goes to the following merchants who donated so generously: Bethel IGA, Charlie's Place, Encon Oil Co., Mother's, Fran-N-Shannon, Brooks Brothers, Red Top Truck Stop, Kelley's Auto Parts, Rostay Motor Inn, Charlie's Chevron Station, Fox Barber Shop, The Gem Shop, Davis Lumber, Bob's Corner Store, Sakes' Barber Shop, Sandy's Kitchen, Tom's Custom Meals, Gingerbread House Bakery, Prim's, Min. View Store, Edelweiss, Western Maine Supply, West Bethel Store, Norseman Inn, Sully's Sweets, Unicorn Flower Shop, Miller's Inn & Bakery, The Marketplace, The Village Store, Harvey's Antiques, The Douglass Place, R.F.D. #1, The Fashion Basket, The Only Place, Linda's Country Flair, Bethel Auto Sales, Westleigh's Texaco, Mr. Rugs-the Floorist, Lyon Orchards, Ripley & Fletcher Gulf Station, The Bethel Citizen, Brown's Mobil, Glen Mountain House, Ring Down Deli.

The grand prize of a beautifully decorated cake from Sally's Sweets was won by Grace Day of Greenwood. Many, many thanks to all contributors and players.

At this time of autumn we walk on thin hillsides or open fields as the trees nod in their gold and rust brown dresses. No longer the bright reds of early October but beautiful just the same. One small tree stands out as it is a bit different from others. Many of its leaves have fluttered to the ground and it is filled with yellow blooms which spread out feathery and ribbon-like among slender boughs. The seed-pods of a year ago can be found still clinging to the branches. When ripe they explode with great force scattering for several feet. This is the witch hazel tree.

I like to look for the berries of the black alder. They are eye-catching by streams or road sides with bright red berries among the reeds or cat tails and heart warming to a walker.

With woods more open there is more space to see now.

Nature is turning her lamps low, shorter days of sunlight and less time to see. Soon her white blanket will be pulled in to place to cover it all.

Doris Hayes had several visitors over the weekend, Glenn and Rachel Hayes, Gray; Ardell Hayes, Auburn; her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Edgeton of Portland, and his mother and father, of Ohio; Diane Spires, New Hampshire; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hayes, local.

Sunday callers at Mr. and Mrs. Leonas Holt's were David, Sally and Mary Holt, Ann Holt, and I.

I attended Retired Teachers at Rumbold Point on Saturday.

My callers were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Britton, South Paris; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Curtis, Zilpha DiLorenzo, Denise Adams, Ann and Fay Holt, Local; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wildberg, Canton, Mass.

I was in Berlin and Gorham, N.H., with Mr. and Mrs. Leonas Holt one day this week.

CANADIAN BOARDING SCHOOLS TO VISIT GOULD

On Wednesday, Nov. 5, four distinguished Canadian boarding schools will be visiting Gould Academy. The visit in conjunction with two evening receptions that will be held in Portland on Nov. 4 and in Lewiston on Nov. 4, will include Bishop's College School, Sedbergh and Stanstead College all located in Quebec and Rousesay Collegiate School-Netherwood in New Brunswick. Administrators and students from the schools will be taking this brief tour. During their two days in Maine, the school representatives will visit Hebron Academy and Kents Hill School as well as Bates College in addition to Gould.

The public is cordially invited to attend the receptions in Portland at the Holiday Inn-Downtown on Nov. 4 and at the Bates College Admissions Lounge in Lewiston

Locke Mills

By LORRAINE MILLS

The Greenwood Historical Society will meet Wednesday, Nov. 5, at 7:30 at the building on Main Street.

The Greenwood Fire Department will hold its oyster stew supper Sunday evening, Nov. 2, at the fire station.

The Greenwood Fire Department's monthly meeting will be held Tuesday, Nov. 4, at 7 p.m. at the fire station.

The Locke Mills Union Church served as a neutral pulpit Sunday and hosted a ministerial candidate for the West Paris Church. Her name is Connie Wells and she is a graduate of the Bangor Theological Seminary.

The fall meeting of the Oxford Association was held Sunday afternoon at the Poland church. Marlon and Joan Parker attended as delegates for the Locke Mills Union Church.

Jeannette Knight visited her sister-in-law in South Paris recently, and Charles and Jeannette went to Franklin, N.H., to visit his nephew, Herbert Hatfield, Jr., a couple of weeks ago.

Michael Roberts is home and is recuperating satisfactorily after his recent accident.

Jeannette Knight baby-sat her great grandson, Christopher, who is four months old, one day last week while her daughter, Marianne, attended Mid State College as their regular babysitter was ill.

Lorraine and John Mills visited their daughter, Marcia, and son-in-law, Jon Smith, at their home in Dryden last Monday. They stopped on their way home at the Prairie Assembly of God Church, where Lorraine was scheduled to speak at the Women's Ministries meeting.

Margery Swan and family looked after grandchildren Rebecca and Doug, while their parents, Jeff and Dorothy Swan attended the Maine Mariners hockey game Sunday, and the children stayed overnight.

Fannie Baker spent some time with her daughter, Pauline Corrivau, in Concord, N.H., and her daughter Alberta Corrivau in Farmington, N.H., and has now returned home for a while to get her home ready for winter in case she decides to spend the winter with her daughter, Alberta. Alphonse Baker passed away in July. Pauline's husband, Jean, of Concord, N.H., is in very poor health. He is formerly from Gilead, Maine.

Bible Study for adults will begin at the parsonage Thursday at 7:30 p.m. for six weeks. Lyn Barton will be leader.

on Nov. 5. Refreshments will be served. There is no charge, of course. Please contact Ed Hitchcock at 824-2251 if you wish more information.

Rotary Club notes

The Bethel Rotary Club held its regular weekly meeting at Martha's restaurant on Tuesday morning. There has been a marked increase in attendance with the new meeting time.

Visiting Rotarians and guests joining with the group this week were Frank Tibbets and Harry Longley, Northfield, Vt., and Dr. Stanley Howe, guest of Rollie Glines.

The program chairman was Rollie Glines and his guest speaker was Dr. Stanley Howe, director of the Bethel Historical Society. Stanley gave a background history of Dr. Moses Mason and the present organization of the historical society. A slide presentation identified many historical scenes, buildings, and persons prominent in the area in those times, 100 years or so ago. Stanley's expertise in this field is recognized widely, and Rotarians are grateful to have him share his knowledge with them.

John Elliot was the winner of the weekly club raffle.

Bethel Rotary Club will be sponsoring a pancake breakfast on Sunday, Nov. 23, at the Gould Academy dining room. Scrambled eggs will be optional. Proceeds from the breakfast are to be donated to the Bethel Fire Department's "Jaws of Life" project. Local support is solicited. Breakfast will be served from 8 a.m. to 12 noon. John Elliot, has been coordinating the breakfast with the Gould food manager, Dan Allen. Ray Harrington is chairman of the ticket sales committee. Tickets are $3.50 for adults, and $2 for children under 12.

John Elliot distributed a work schedule for the pancake breakfast.

President Dave encouraged the full participation of fellow Rotarians in support of upcoming projects and programs such as the Senior Citizens dinner and Christmas baskets.

The meeting next week will be a club assembly.

Honor society recognizes students-of-month

The National Honor Society of Telstar Regional High School regularly recognizes one student from each class who were nominated by their teachers as student of the month. This program was established by the National Society Society to commend students for their academic achievements.

Loretta Long was September's senior of the month. She was nominated by her French and English teachers for showing great insight on the summer reading program and French literature. She has shown true promise in her studies and is an example of one who never quits. She is the daughter of Danny Long of East Bethel and Brenda Prech of Bethel.

Barb Bennett, daughter of Mark and Charlotte Bennett of Bethel, was chosen as September's junior of the month. Rodney Abbott, her teacher in Public Issues nominated for her enthusiasm in organizing a class committee and for going beyond the usual expectations.

Paula Michaud, as September's sophomore of the month, was nominated by her World Studies II teacher and Spanish II teachers. She has shown consistently and good grades on class performance with a high sense of responsibility. She scored a 96 on a recent chapter test in World Studies. Paula is the daughter of Gerald and Judith Michaud of Andover.

Raymond Tuttle of Marilyn Ackley's English course was nominated as September's freshman of the month. He assumed a leadership role in the class by volunteering good answers and asking good questions. His reliability and enthusiasm have set a standard for the class. Raymond is the son of James and Margaret Tuttle of Lockport.

All recipients receive a free pizza from Charlie's Place in Bethel.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank all of my friends and relatives for all the cards and flowers I received while in the hospital. I also want to thank my good friends and neighbors for their help and thoughtfulness. Thanks to the good doctors who helped me and the wonderful nurses for their special care while I was at Stephens Memorial Hospital.

Notes from Adult & Community Education

Adult and Community Education Director Cathy Newell presented a workshop on Friday, Oct. 17, at Lewiston High School on the GED on TV series which will air on Channel 10 (WCBB) during the next months (and started on Oct. 26). Larinda Mead from the Department of Educational and Cultural Services was the co-presenter. The workshop covered ways to integrate the television high school equivalency series into the traditional adult education program. The SAD #44 program has copies of the entire series on videotape and will be using the tapes in the learning center/GED preparation classes. The tapes will be useful to those who are participating at home and are not able to tape the series off the air for review.

Mrs. Newell has previewed the series and found it to be lively and watchable. There are accompanying workbooks which may be obtained from the Adult Education office, 824-2780. Anyone who would like to use the GED on TV series is urged to contact the Adult Education office to obtain the books and to arrange for Practice Tests. The series on TV began with the Reading section.

The president of the University of Maine at Augusta has asked to meet with a group of area residents interested in the Community College Plan which involves a microwave system which will allow access to university courses via television throughout the state at a network of sites. Dr. George Connick has asked for the meeting to be arranged by the SAD #44 Adult and Community office, to determine the level of interest in having an extended site established at Telstar. Mrs. Newell is in the process of setting up the meeting. Anyone who is interested in being included is asked to contact the Adult Education office.

'STOP SMOKING CLINIC' STARTING NOV. 6

A Stop Smoking Clinic sponsored by Stephens Memorial Hospital of Norway will begin Thursday, Nov. 6, in the hospital's Health Education Department. The eight session clinic will be held 6-8 p.m., Thursday, Nov. 6 and 13, Sunday through Thursday, Nov. 16-20, and Tuesday, Nov. 25.

The first two sessions will prepare participants for a quitting target date of Nov. 16—the Sunday through Thursday sessions will give the support and education necessary while withdrawing from nicotine.

A $25 fee for the eight sessions will be charged.

For more information and to register call the Health Education Department at Stephens Memorial Hospital, 743-5933, Ext. 489.

THIS WEEK AT THE Moses Mason House

All members and friends of the Bethel Historical Society are reminded that the next monthly meeting will be held on Thursday, Nov. 6, at 7:30 p.m. in the meeting room of the Dr. Moses Mason House. Featured during the program portion of the meeting will be a presentation on the history of Grafton, Maine by Margaret Joy Tibbets, chairman of the society's board of trustees. Forty-five miles northwest of Paris and 22 miles from Bethel Hill, the town was first settled in 1638. Formerly called "Holmes" and also "Letter A, No. 2," it was incorporated on March 19, 1852 following the annexation of its southern portion to Newry in 1842. Grafton reached its greatest period of prosperity about a century ago and shortly after that period, due to a number of factors, declined rapidly. This decline resulted in the surrender of its charter on Feb. 27, 1919. For many years now it has had no permanent residents, only a few cellar holes and its cemetery testify to the fact that this area was once home to several Maine families. Miss Tibbets has included a wide variety of sources in her research on this western Maine town and anyone interested in learning more of its history is cordially invited to attend this meeting. Refreshments will follow the program.

Newest member of the society is Linda L. Levens of Holden, Mass., who is a descendant of Stephen Bartlett, of Hanover, Maine.

Latest contributors to the 1986 endowment campaign are George and Danna Nickerson, Bethel, and Marguerite Hall McNally, Hampden, in memory of her parents, Fred and Gladys Hall. Much appreciation is expressed for this generosity.

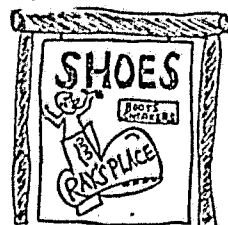

The 1987 Bethel Historical Society calendar is expected from the printers soon. Also the fall issue of the society's quarterly, The Bethel Courier, should be sent out next month. Anyone interested in a complimentary copy of the Courier is invited to visit the society or call the office at 824-2908 or write P.O. Box 12, Bethel, Maine 04217.

The latest addition to the society's archives is a copy of the records of the first Universalist Society of West Sumner, 1829-1984.

Anyone interested in oral history is reminded of the workshop to be held Saturday, Nov. 1, 2 p.m., in the meeting room of the Dr. Moses Mason House. There is no charge and free materials will be distributed to all participants.

Koral Smith is a member of the Girl Scouts this year having flown-up from the Brownies last spring.

Sally Smith closed up her shop for the winter recently and had a get-together of a dozen or so people who helped her take care of the leftovers. She is still making her cakes, however.

We're proud of Telstar Middle School who has captured the Little Andy Valley League Soccer Championships. Patrick Harrington has been their goalie this season.

Denny and Rita Wilson expected to be attending parents day at Mindy's school, USM, this past weekend.

Jennie Moore went to the birthday party for Grayson Wakefield, East Bethel, Saturday.

CARD OF THANKS

Bethel Lions Club news

William Tom Flanagan, District Governor 41-L, visited the Bethel Lions Club on Oct. 21. He presented membership award pins to Lion George Gibson and Deputy District Governor Eldon Greenleaf. These awards are for bringing new members to Lionism.

In his remarks to the Bethel club, he spoke of international and district programs, such as drug awareness, diabetes and quality membership, which will help bring a better quality of life to the peoples of the world. He also gave a brief recap of the International Convention.

Bethel President Malcolm Gould announced that work is progressing on the Lions Hall, and the heating system should be in very soon.

There were three visiting Lions from the Sebago club.

ALBANY 4-H CLUB REORGANIZES

The Albany 4-H Club re-organized for the 1986-87 year holding its first meeting on Oct. 22. Meeting was called to order by Leader Roberta White with nine members and two leaders present. Flag salute and club pledge were led by Darrell Howard and Crystal White.

The upcoming Achievement Night being held on Oct. 30 in Mexico was discussed. Members of 4-H and their families are invited to attend.

NOTES FROM Telstar Guidance

On Tuesday, Oct. 21, 46 juniors took the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT). The PSAT/NMSQT is a multiple-choice test that measures developed verbal and mathematical skills important for academic performance in college. Scores from this test can be used to estimate performance on the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) and more recently, selection to the Advancement Placement program. Results of the PSAT/NMSQT will be available to those juniors and their parents in early December. Mr. Hart will also provide an interpretation workshop for the 46 juniors who took the PSAT/NMSQT.

Self Group, a weekly self-esteem developing group for Telstar Regional High School students, began with an orientation meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 28. Mr. Hart, seniors Karen Gould and Lisa Boylan, will be leading the group, beginning the first week of November and lasting 14 weeks. Interested students should contact Mr. Hart, Karen or Lisa.

Guidance activities/events for the next two weeks:

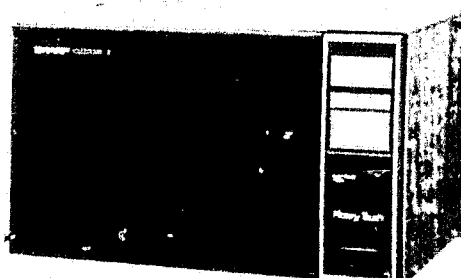

- Friday, Oct. 31, Engineering Seminar at Boise Cascade.
- Thursday, Nov. 6, Sophomore Parents' Night, 7 p.m.
- Friday, Nov. 7, First Quarter grades close.
- Monday, Nov. 10, Teacher Workshop day, no school.
- Tuesday, Nov. 11, Veterans Day, no school.
- Representatives visiting Telstar Regional High School guidance office:
 - Thursday, Oct. 30, SMVTI, South Portland.
 - Friday, Nov. 7, Husson College, Bangor.
 - Wednesday, Nov. 12, University of Southern Maine, U.S. Marine Corps, and Westbrook College, Portland.
 - Thursday, Nov. 20, Trinity College, Burlington, Vt., and Becker Junior College, Worcester, Mass.
 - Monday, Nov. 24, University of Maine, Orono.

A Halloween Party is also planned for Friday, Oct. 31 at the Town Hall from 7-9 p.m. All children within Albany are invited.

Nomination and election of officers will be held at the next meeting, Nov. 5, at the Town Hall.

After the business meeting was adjourned members worked on a cone wreath craft project.

JACKSON-SILVER POST & UNIT
Jackson-Silver Post Unit #68, American Legion Auxiliary, held its annual public card social Tuesday, Oct. 21, at 12:30 p.m.

Chairman Mary Lyon had the 10 tables set up in a rainbow of colors, with linen cloths, and auxiliary's blue and gold china.

A table of open face pies looked very inviting; coffee and pie were served at 12:30, followed by the various card games. Each ticket drawn received a prize, as did the winners at each table. The special cake made by Sally Smith was won by Grace Day.

Many thanks go to the merchants of Bethel, Bryant Pond and Locke Mills for their donated prizes. A card of appreciation will list each one. Everyone had a good afternoon.

Assisting Mary Lyon were Sylvia Dunham, Vera Cross, Fannie Cummings, and Earl Colby.

Attending the funeral and committal services for veteran Vernon (Tink) Brown of Post #81, Bethel, were Jackson-Silver members Commander Earl Colby, Charlie Mason, Leroy Patten, Brian Strickland and Danny Davis.

The Oxford Post #112 held a flag burning ceremony Sunday. More than 250 non-serviceable flags were properly disposed of. Commander Earl Colby and Charlie Mason assisted.

Attending Oxford County Council in Bethel Oct. 21, were Warren and Grace Smith, Charlie Mason, and Earl Colby.

Nov. 3 at 7 p.m. the junior members of Unit #68 will repeat their program, "The American Creed," for the grangers at Bryant Pond. Mary Lyon will be in charge, assisted by Sylvia Dunham and Cathryn Lovejoy.

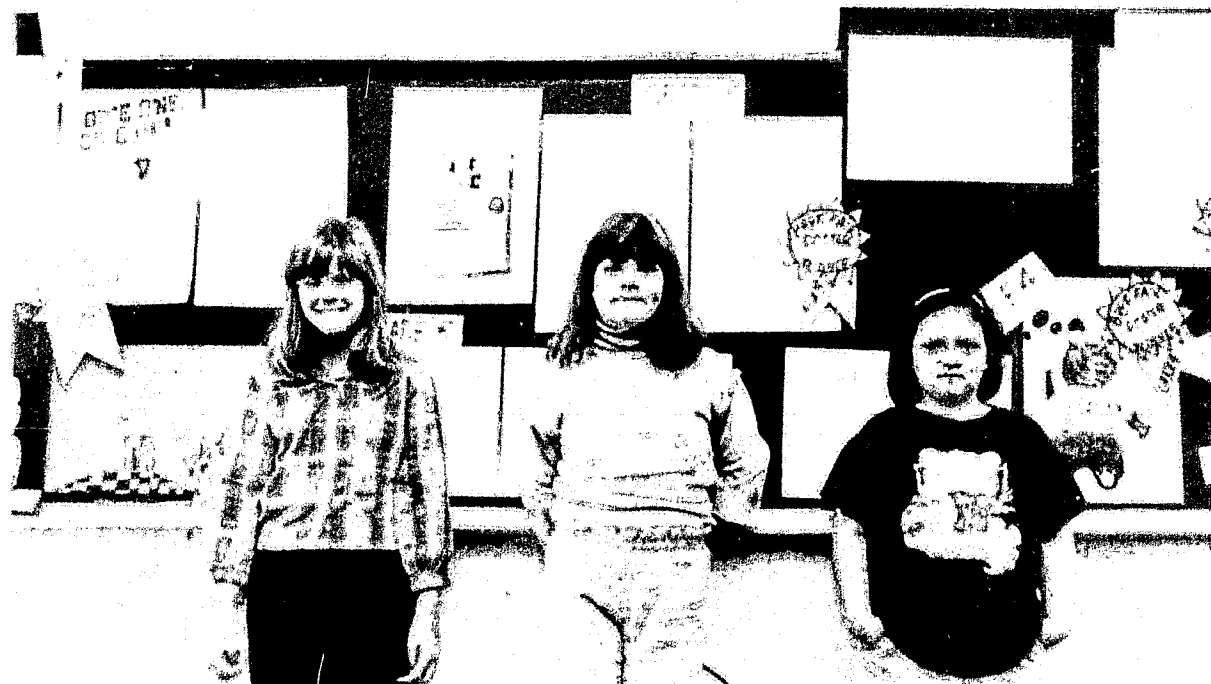

Plans for Veterans Day, Nov. 11, will include the speaker, State Senator Ed Erwin of Rumford, and the Telstar Marching Band.

Nov. 6 is the date for the next regular meetings of Post and Unit #68, at 6:30 p.m.

IN MEMORIAM

The nights are cold and lonely
without the ones we love,
We hear your voice at night,
coming from above.
We wish you hadn't left us
and gone so far away,
We know that we will meet again
a different time and day.
When you were here you filled our hearts with things we can't replace
But now you're gone and all we feel is a great big empty space.
We think of you both night and day,
We'll love you forever in every way,
You'll always be here, deep inside.
A special place where you can hide
We feel too much to say goodbye,
Our love for you will never die.

In loving memory of Randy, Leslie, Brock and Bronson
from the Deans Family

EXCELLENT ARTISTS: These Agnes Gray School youngsters had their Book Fair posters posted in Mrs. Loper's room, advertising the upcoming event. The trio are Daniella Westleigh, 5th grade, Jodi Gilpatrick, 3rd grade and Starr Mowatt, 4th grade.

The Halloween parade is scheduled for 1:30 on Friday, Oct. 31. Line-up along Main Street early so you won't miss a ghost or a goblin. The kindergarten children will be missing this year, but they will put on their own parade going from class to class in the morning. They are getting used to parades, as this past week they paraded for the first grade in their elephant masks. They were studying the letter E! Mrs. Brown continues to combine math with holiday activities. Pumpkin math has been the subject this week. The kindergartners have been estimating how many lines are on a pumpkin and then graphing the results, they have been estimating the weight and graphing that and they have been estimating the circumference, measuring with strings and then graphing the strings.

The meeting of our volunteer support group got off to a great start. Mrs. Judith Loper and Mrs. Debbie Small, coordinators, welcomed the faculty and Mrs. Avis Hayes, Mrs. Heidi Everett, Mrs. Dian Stinson, Mrs. Debbie Herrick, Mrs. Gretchen Hurchinson, Mrs. Mary Emery, Mrs. Judith Herrick and Mrs. Cindy Hiebert to this very important endeavor. Each volunteer received a handbook to use as a guide and listened to explanations of what kinds of activities were available. Before leaving several

SUNDAY SCHOOL PARTY

The Bethel United Methodist Church Sunday School is having a party on Nov. 2, at 9 a.m. to celebrate the fun of belonging to the fellowship of Sunday School. Sponsored by the Junior and Senior High classes, there will be games, music, food and entertainment. Children, ages 3-17, are invited to join them for this celebration.

signed up to help on the book fair that will be held in November around the time of parent-teacher conferences. Refreshments were enjoyed, as well as a brief social time to help us get to know one another. Several volunteers let us know that they were interested, but unable to attend this meeting. The next meeting will be held in January.

The first ranking period closes on the 31st. This means several things to us. Not only does it mean that rank cards are soon to be out, but it also means that our art teacher will be leaving for a quarter. She'll be back here for the third ranking period. However she will not be coming back as Miss Leino, but as Mrs. Merrill. She is getting married on Halloween. Congratulations, Sharon and Steve!

Miss Leino has done several neat art projects with the students. She has created a banner for our up-coming play with the help of several students. Next time she's with us look for the artist of the week. This week's artist was Amy Tikander of grade six.

NEWS FROM THE Windy Valleys Snowmobile Club

The monthly meeting of the Windy Valleys Snowmobile Club was held Oct. 16 at the club house, with 17 members present. Some members came dressed in Halloween garb and everyone participated in a game after the meeting.

New members Eric Wight and Don Gray accepted joint positions as safety officer for the club. The treasurer reported that the two day lawn and bake sale was a huge success! Thanks to all who helped support the Oxford Association for Retarded Children by donating items or making purchases at the sale. Trail work is nearing completion, with part at ITS 82 in Grafton Notch being relocated. Also, we expect to have a new trail connecting Route 2 in Hanover and Route 26 in Newry.

Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts of Windham donated a breeze spinner to the club. Our next meeting will be held at the club house, Thursday, Nov. 20, at 7:30 p.m. A pot luck supper starts at 6:30 p.m. preceding the business meeting.

By MIRIAM INMAN

The West Paris Senior Citizens met at the Legion Hall on Oct. 7 for a potluck dinner and meeting, with 27 present. Robert Jamison, manager of the Oxford County Tel. & Tel. Co., explained about changes coming up with the telephone service. Get well cards have been signed and sent to Mary Knights, Mildred Powell, Walter Polvinen, John Haney and Tom Elliott.

On Nov. 4 a Thanksgiving dinner will be served by the Ledgeview Memorial Home Auxiliary.

The West Paris Historical Society met at the society building on Monday evening for a meeting preceded by a turkey dinner with all the fixings. Special guests were Odd Fellows and their wives. At this time the Historical Society was presented with the deed to the I.O.O.F. building. There were eight Odd Fellows present including Albert Penley Sr., Carl Brooks, Reynold Chase, Henry Waisanen, Clarence Reid, Lorenzo Cole, Stanley Farrar and Harris Hathaway. Several spoke a few words and "Doodle" had compiled some interesting information in regard to the order. Milton Inman entertained with some slides of olden days and with slides of local residents. The next meeting will be on Nov. 17 preceded by a potluck supper. Sayward and Cynthia Lamb will be the committee.

The Firemen's Auxiliary will meet on Nov. 3 at 7 p.m. at the fire station meeting room.

Mrs. Mary Bessey of Livermore Falls returned home Sunday after spending several days with her sister and family, Ivan and Ann Proctor and Ivan, Jr.

The West Paris Grange Hall had its new chairlift installed yesterday (Tuesday). Nestor Tamminen, treasurer of the chairlift fund, was on hand to make sure things went right. Androscoggin Lift Co., of Freeport, installed the lift. Originally the Grange had considered an elevator or a chairlift on the staircase in the lobby. But the costs were prohibitive. Finally it was decided to build a new staircase inside the hall in order to have a straight incline for the chairlift. That is what was done and the price was $2,300 for the new stairway—which was built by Danny Daniels—and $3,500 for the electric chairlift.

The unit was needed because the meetings are held upstairs and some of the members have trouble getting up the

New England's response to the constitution next in series

The next session of the reading and discussion series, New England and the Constitution, sponsored by the New England Library Association and the New England Foundation for the Humanities will feature "New England Responds to the Constitution."

Following a short presentation by Stanley R. Howe, director of the Bethel Historical Society, there will be a discussion of the issues raised. Why was the issue of ratification of the constitution so fiercely fought in New England where in other colonies to the south it passed by large margins? What kinds of men opposed the constitution in New England and what were their reasons for doing so? These and other questions will be discussed as the series honors the approaching bicentenary of the U.S. Constitution.

This session will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 5, in the Bethel Library. Anyone interested in further information, should call the library at 824-2520. There is no charge for the series and anyone interested is cordially invited to attend.

Notes from the

Woodstock Historical Society

Following is a speech made by Benjamin Franklin at the Constitutional Convention of 1787, whose bicentennial will shortly be celebrated—

"I confess that there are several parts of this constitution which I do not at present approve, but I am not sure I shall never approve them: For having lived long, I have experienced many instances of being obliged by better information or fuller consideration, to change opinions on even important subjects, which I once thought right, but found to be otherwise. It is therefore that the older I grow, the more apt I am to doubt my own judgement, and to pay more respect to the judgement of others."

The next meeting of the Woodstock Historical Society, on Saturday, Nov. 8, will mark the beginning of its eighth year. For the program, Blaine Mills will show slides of old photographs of Locke Mills.

The money for the project was raised at various fundraisers, although the fund still lacks $500 in order to meet the total cost of $5,800.

WHY WE SHOULD ELECT TOM WINSOR AS OUR STATE REPRESENTATIVE

Helping Bethel's businesses plan for the future:
Bob Chadbourne explains the advantages of the new co-generation facility at the P.H. Chadbourne Company in Bethel to candidate Tom Winsor. Leon Favreau of Bethel Furniture Stock and Dick Rasor, Bethel Inn owner. The facility will produce steam and electricity from wood residue, Maine's primary renewable resource.

And, Tom Winsor has a fine working relationship with Maine's Washington team, Bill Cohen and Olympia Snowe

Andover School news

Kick-off for the 1986-87 walk-a-thon was held at the Andover Elementary School on Oct. 24 with Gordo the Clown entertaining. Money raised will be used for special acts and cultural events throughout the school year for the school and community. Pledge sheets were distributed Friday to be turned in by Nov. 7. The walk-a-thon will be held on Oct. 29. Any questions may be directed to Carol Stuart or Joyce Morgan, walk-a-thon chairpersons.

The annual Open House/Book Fair was a tremendous success again this year netting $115.16. This money will enable us to provide books for our library. A very special thank you to all those who helped in any way to make the open house and book fair a success.

On Oct. 29, Andover Elementary School students will be participating in the walk-a-thon to raise money for special events. These events will benefit the school and community. All are invited to attend these events.

Again this year at the Halloween Party there will be time set aside for games. All children will participate in each game. Modifications will be made for the different age groups, pre-school through grade 6. Students have the opportunity to earn tickets at each of the game booths. At the end of the evening prizes will be awarded to the students with the most tickets in each age group.

Grades 1-4 have been involved in a weekly art program since the beginning of school. Each Friday from 1-2 p.m. there is a special art project for them to do. The four classroom teachers take turns planning the projects for a certain week and then are "aides" on the other weeks. It has worked very well. Some of the projects have been: nature collage, quilling, 3-D October scene, block printing; screen painting, and chalk drawing. This week's project will be making Halloween masks.

Oct. 30: All school assembly at 10:15 a.m. Smokey the Bear visits W.E.S. Oct. 31: Halloween! Parade of the Horribles beginning with kindergarten students parading to Elderwood Manor and doing finger puppets at 9 a.m. Grades 1-6 will parade around the square at 12:45 p.m. Individual class parties will be held following the parades.

Rebels lose in playoff; middle school champs

Telstar's varsity soccer team lost its preliminary round match with Lincoln Academy, in Newcastle, last Wednesday, 6-1, eliminating it from the state playoffs.

The middle school soccer team fared better. Last Thursday, the young Rebels defeated Peru, 3-1, for the championship of the Andy Valley Conference. The teams in the conference are Telstar, Oxford Hills, Rumford, Mexico and Peru.

Banking Unit spearheaded by Betsy White. Mrs. White and Mr. Sabin, 6th grade teacher, will start this program in January with the 6th grade class. More information will follow as the program is set in place.

The Halloween party for pre-schoolers is in full swing. John Emery is costume chairman as is Linda Percival and Betsy White, games; Margie Bartlett, punch and cookies (need more cider and popcorn balls); Barb Bailey, pumpkin judging; Gloria Conary and Peggy Madigan, decorating; Carol Stuart, door prize; and Sharon Hutchins, clean-up. If you have not yet sent a return to school in areas you can help, contact the chairperson of the event you would like to contribute. It was also voted to donate toward the expense of the National Honor Society serving ice cream sundaes at the party.

Anyone contributing to the party in bags of wrapped candy, financial contribution, or helping in any way, by turning off their porch light will signify to the trick-or-treaters (that) their treats are at the school party.

Each child, pre-school through grade 6, is asked to send to school a bag of wrapped candy. These will be divided up and each child will receive a bag of goodies. (Murphy likes peanut butter cups.)

Any questions concerning the party contact Sharon Hutchins, 392-4351, or the school.

Name "dog tags" will be ordered from a California man who manufactures these and distributes free to non-profit groups. These "lifesaver" tags will fit on sneakers, no larger than a garment tag, and contain life-saving information of the wearer. This program is nationally recognized with over 30 million given away to date.

Mr. Murphy did a quick run-down on the SRA testing results. An overall review indicates that grades 3, 5, and 6, who were tested, are at or slightly above

What a strange week of weather! The temperature has been so changeable it keeps one guessing. The morning chill seems like it's a day made for a fire in the wood stove. Then by the time it really gets going well, we have had to open the doors because it was too much. I wonder if our Indian Summer will come around Thanksgiving or were the two warmer days this week all we will get? The ad that used to be on TV said, "You can't fool Mother Nature," but it seems she does a good job fooling us mortals.

THOUGHTS FROM THE Pastor's Study

The Bethel Area Clergy Association, with the help of pastors of surrounding churches, is endeavoring to frequently bring to you these meditations. Not based on any set theme, they will be individual for each pastor. It is hoped you will find in these words, comfort and help for your daily life.

"Lord I want to be a Christian." These are the beginning words of one of our traditional spiritual songs that is a favorite of mine. Not only for its words, but for the zest in its singing that a congregation will generally give it.

Now let us ask ourselves a question, "Do I want to be a Christian?" and how you think the majority of people would answer it. I am quite certain that most would answer a definite yes. But, let's assume that we are talking to a person that has never heard of Christianity, and we ask them the same question. Undoubtedly their reply would be what is a Christian?

A dictionary gives us an answer, similar words to this: "Professing or following the religion of Christ." The first two words in this definition are so important. To profess, the dictionary says, is to declare openly, avow, or affirm.

When we join a church we take certain vows or declare ourselves believers of God and his Son.

If we join a fraternal order we also make certain vows and declarations. In general, we agree with certain standards the founders of the organizations have established. We take these vows and accept the standards before a gathering of that order. We are a member! We have professed: Now let us look at that definition again. "Professing or following." How about that word following? We join the fraternal order and if we pay our dues then we can rightfully declare ourselves a member.

I truly believe that most people are Christians. Whether they have ever joined a church or openly professed their beliefs, or not, I believe that within themselves they have professed, at least, to the sense of believing in God. Perhaps lack in understanding, rather than doubt, keep them away from full beliefs in Christ, but in an outward sense, until the inner self had been aroused, I feel they can rightfully feel they are Christians. Now let us start along with the rest of that definition. You can be a member of an organization or you can be a good active member. This is where following comes in. When we start to support the standards of that order. Now I would

MILLS RECEIVES 100% RATING FROM MAINE LEAGUE OF CONSERVATION VOTERS

Rep. Jeff Mills (D-Bethel) has received a 100% rating from the Maine League of Conservation Voters, an independent, non-partisan group organized to protect environmental quality through the electoral process. The League's ratings are made by a board of directors comprised of prominent conservationists in Maine.

Mills, who is seeking a third term in the Maine House of Representatives, was cited by the group for his support of their position on such issues as radioactive waste, Big "A," wildlife bond issue, chemical insecticides. He has also received the endorsement of the Sportsman Alliance of Maine in his bid for reelection, based on his support for the interests of that group relating to the environment.

SPEED TAILORING CLASS STARTING NOV. 13

The SAD #4 Adult and Community Education program will offer a three-week course in Speed Tailoring starting on Nov. 13 at Telstar Regional High School. Donna McCarragher of Waterford will be the instructor for the class which will short-cut tailoring techniques for the "professional look" in home sewing. Some of the demonstrations will include the use of interfacing, roll lines in lapels, welt pockets, and proper use of shoulder pads. The class will be a demonstration style class. To enroll in the class, which will start at 7 p.m., call the Adult and Community Education office, 824-2780.

Refer you to the start of verse 4 of the song I mentioned in the beginning, "Lord I Want To Be Like Jesus." Certainly if we could live up to this we would be good Christians.

Jesus displayed love and consideration. All of his work was based on the good for others. Gentle, yet forceful at times in his support of righteousness. He was the perfect One.

What a challenge, to anyone, to be like Jesus. Impossible yes, but to be a good Christian we must do our best! Thinking of the last words of each verse in the song and of the refrain "In My Heart."

This is not some idle assumption taken as a profession, "Lord I Want To Be A Christian," but in sincerity and determination "In My Heart!" Remember, "Each act each day reflects what is within our hearts."

CALCIUM WORKSHOP AT BETHEL HOUSE NOV. 13

The SAD #44 Adult and Community Education program and the Cooperative Extension Service will co-sponsor a special program entitled Calcium: You Never Outgrow Your Need. For III on Thursday, Nov. 13, at 9:30 a.m. at the community room of the Bethel House on Main Street. In describing the program, Wendy Pollock of the Extension Service stated, "Some people wrongly believe that when they stop growing, they no longer need calcium. The truth is, however, that people never outgrow their need for this essential nutrient throughout life."

The workshop will examine our calcium requirements, look at calcium rich foods, suggest ways of incorporating this nutrient into one's diet. There will be discussion of the health risks of osteoporosis. The workshop is especially timely for senior citizens and others who are concerned about the recent publicity surrounding osteoporosis. There is no fee for the workshop, but pre-registration is encouraged so that the workshop will be held. Please call the SAD #44 Adult and Community Education office, 824-2780, to sign up.

REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS

The Maine interdepartmental Committee on Transition (representing the Departments of Human Services, Mental Health & Mental Retardation, and Education and Cultural Services, as well as the public), is seeking coordinated proposals from the coalitions of local schools, service providers, and other community representatives in Maine for the development of programs which provides employment and related services for handicapped youth in transition from school to the community. A total of $220,000 is available to fund four to six local projects, averaging between $30,000 and $50,000 per site, to begin January 1, 1987 or thereafter. Proposals must be received at the Bureau of Rehabilitation in Augusta by 5:00 p.m. on December 5, 1986.

Further information, including grant application forms, requested program criteria, criteria for ranking proposals, and proposed review procedures can be obtained by writing or calling Ms. Diana Scully, COT Chair, Bureau of Rehabilitation, Department of Human Services, 32 Winthrop Street, Augusta, ME 04330, (207) 289-2266. 43

EDEN RIDGE GOES TO PLANNERS

"My clients are not opposed to this development per se," Mr. Cole explained. "It is only the use of Eden Lane."

Mr. Cole hypothesized that each family in the 50 unit subdivision would have two or three cars and this would place an "extraordinary increased burden" on the Eden Lane roadway and on the people who live on what is currently a dead end street.

Relying on the newly purchased property of Avery Angevine, extending from the planned subdivision out to Eden Lane, the developers plan to extend Eden Lane into the subdivision, where it will connect with the subdivision road. Developer Saxe explained they would first build two buildings of the eight-building complex, and these two building sites would be accessed through Eden Lane, rather than up the hillside from the Vernon Street side.

Mr. Cole predicted the heavy construction trucks using Eden Lane would have that road chewed up within 30 days. "The only safe way for this development to go correctly is to access it from Vernon Street," he said.

He said his clients would drop their opposition to the subdivision plan if the access was changed from Eden Lane to Vernon Street. "We're asking you [the Planning Board] to require the developer to abandon his plan for access from Eden Lane."

Mr. Cole then addressed the developers: "Would the developer be willing to abandon the access through Eden Lane?"

Avery Angevine shook his head vigorously from side to side indicating "no," and Barry Saxe noted that the purpose of the hearing was to discuss the plan as presented, which meant access through Eden Lane. Mr. Saxe said the erosion problem would be greater if the heavy trucks came up from Vernon Street into the development.

The engineer for the developers, Dana Morton, of Stephens Architects, said drainage from the nine-acre site would double, to eight cubic-feet-per-second, after the entire project was complete. He

Maine Historical Society hosts exhibition on the Grand Trunk Railway

"The Atlantic and St. Lawrence/St. Lawrence and Atlantic Railroads" will be on view in the Library Building of the Maine Historical Society, 485 Congress Street, Portland, through Nov. 8. The exhibition, organized by the Canadian National Railway to celebrate its 150 anniversary, spotlights the history of the Grand Trunk Railway and draws upon material from the Public Archives of Canada. The society will supplement the exhibition with items from its extensive Portland Company Collection as well as documents borrowed from Bowdoin College on the Atlantic and St. Lawrence Railroad. The library is open Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m.; Thursday, 9 a.m.-7 p.m.; and the second Saturday of the month, 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Admission to the exhibition area is free.

The rail link between Portland and Montreal was begun in 1845 as the Atlantic and St. Lawrence/St. Lawrence and Atlantic Railroads, a joint American-Canadian venture. In 1853, the new Grand Trunk Railway leased the Portland-Montreal line. The exhibition includes copies of charming watercolors done in 1878 by Jonathan Muir, a surveyor along the line. In 1923, the Canadian National system absorbed the Grand Trunk.

said runoff would be carried through swales at each side of the project site as well as through a utilities trench in the middle of the subdivision. The outflow from the trench would go through a culvert under Vernon Street and off towards Kendall Brook.

Following the public hearing, which lasted two hours, the Planning Board met and voted 5-1 (with Mr. Gray dissenting) to ask the Board of Selectmen for assurance that connecting Eden Ridge to the town water supply won't adversely affect water for firefighting or for residents already in the neighborhood.

JOINS GOULD FACULTY — Ms. Lauren Head has been appointed a full-time art faculty member at Gould Academy. She is a 1983 graduate of William Smith College, Geneva, N.Y., with a B.A. degree in studio art. Ms. Head won the Arthur Dove Memorial Art Prize and held the Marcus M. Cass Scholarship for recognition of special achievement. A dean's list student, she earned letters in three varsity sports: soccer, skiing and lacrosse. Prior to coming to Gould, she was assistant race director at the Green Mountain Valley School, a tour leader for the Vermont Country Cycles and worked for the Bette Ann Libby Pottery business. At Gould Ms. Head coaches soccer, skiing and lacrosse and lives in Gehring Hall, a girls' dormitory that she supervises.

ALDER RIVER GRANGE TO MEET NOV. 7

Dr. Williams joins Norway medical practice

Dr. Patricia D. (Pixie) Williams has announced that she is moving her medical practice to the Norway area.

Beginning on Nov. 10, Dr. Williams will join the family practice office of Dr. Daniel B. Mingle located in the Medical Arts Building on Winter Street near Stephens Memorial Hospital. Dr. Williams is a family practice physician with a special interest in obstetrics.

In addition to seeing patients at the Norway office, Dr. Williams will work one day a week at the Nezinscot Valley Health Center on Turner Street in Buckfield.

She received her undergraduate degree from Yale University, and her medical degree from Harvard University in 1978. She completed her family practice residency at Central Maine Medical Center in Lewiston on 1981. A member of the active medical staff at Stephens Memorial Hospital in Norway since July 1981, Dr. Williams is also a board member of the Maine Academy of Family Physicians as well as a member of the American Academy of Family Physicians and the New England Society of Clinical Hypnosis.

Dr. Williams is looking forward to expanding her obstetrical practice in the Oxford Hills area. Her residency training included six months of OB training in pre-natal and post-natal care as well as training in the CMMC Neonatal Special Care Unit.

Locally, Dr. Williams has been associated with the Bethel Area Health Center and the Poland Community Health Center. She and her husband, Bob Elliott, are currently building a house in South Woodstock. Mr. Elliott, who grew up near Rumford Point, owns and operates East/West Wilderness Expeditions.

Anyone wishing to make an appointment with Dr. Williams should call 743-9292 in Norway or 336-2660 at the Health Center in Buckfield.

MARINE PARTICIPATES IN NORTHERN EUROPE EXERCISES

Marine Staff Sgt. Joseph A. Arsenault, son of Dorothy A. and Joseph A. Arsenault Sr., of East Andover Road, Andover, recently participated in exercise Northern Wedding/Bold Guard 86.

During the exercise, more than 35,000 personnel, from Belgium, Canada, Denmark, Federal Republic of Germany, the Netherlands, Norway, United Kingdom, and the United States participated. The maritime operations involved 150 ships and hundreds of aircraft.

The exercise provided the Marine Corps the opportunity to demonstrate its vital contribution to the defense of Northern Europe.

S/Sgt. Arsenault is currently stationed with Marine Amphibious Brigade, Camp Lejeune, N.C.

LINDA BEST, right, had visitors at her Basket Works shop, in Bethel, last week. Michael Roberts left, area manager of Great Britain's Manpower Services Commission was visiting as part of a six-week tour in America, sponsored by the German Marshall Fund. Mr. Roberts was hosted in Maine by the Finance Authority of Maine. Jean Goney, of job start, and Matthew Smith, of Oxford County Community Services, brought Mr. Roberts to the Basket Works because, they said, it is a good example of a new business that was started with help of a small business loan from job start. Mr. Roberts will also tour entrepreneurial-training and employment-creating enterprises in Daytona Beach, Fla., and Portland, Ore. The job start program has made three dozen small business loans since it was started two years ago. The resulting enterprises created 144 jobs, according to Ms. Goney.

Holiday tree returns

A special treat will return to the Oxford Hills to brighten the holiday season.

The Stephens Memorial Hospital Auxiliary will sponsor the Fourth Annual Holiday Tree fundraiser beginning on Nov. 1 and continuing through the Christmas season.

According to Mrs. Hamilton O. Cornwall, hospital trustee and chairman of the event, the auxiliary has made a long term commitment to the project with last year's planting of a permanent tree in front of the hospital in Norway.

"We knew that we were taking a chance in transplanting such a large tree," said Mrs. Cornwall. "After bracing it with guy wires and watering it regularly, it's become quite healthy. Of course, we're still keeping our fingers crossed."

Irving Barrows, a long time supporter of the hospital, donated the evergreen tree to the hospital last year. It was a tree that he and his wife had planted 30 years ago at their South Paris home.

"I know that it's difficult to transplant a tree," said Mr. Barrows, "but I hope this one takes at its new location."

Once again, the Holiday Tree will be decorated with white Christmas lights. Each light on the tree may be purchased in honor or in memory of a relative, a loved one, or as a special gift for a special person. Everyone who purchases a light on the tree will be given a greeting card to send to the honored person.

Lights will be on sale at $5 each for an individual or family. (John Doe/The John Doe Family) Lights purchased for two people, Mr. and Mrs. John Doe, will be sold for $10. All proceeds from the project will be donated to Stephens Memorial Hospital.

Recipients and donors of the tree lights will be listed on a special display poster in the hospital lobby during the holiday season.

Lights go on sale beginning Nov. 1 and can be purchased at the hospital coffee shop, through any auxiliary member, or by calling Mrs. Cornwall at 743-2568, Mrs. Gordon Smith at 743-2407, Mrs. Stuart Cummings at 743-2602, and Mrs. Dana Douglass at 824-2229. Buckfield area residents will be able to buy lights at the Nezinscot Valley Health Center on Turner Street in Buckfield.

Tri-Town Rescue

Training this month is tonight (Wednesday) 7 p.m. at Ledgeview Memorial Home with Dr. Morin from Stephens Memorial Hospital discussing brain injury and brain damage. The meeting is open to all interested people and worth two CEU recertification credits.

The thermometer for the building fund has climbed to $15,000. The auxiliary needs $5,000 more to reach its goal and completely pay for the construction of the ambulance barn with no borrowed funds. Region 11 students are putting the roof on the building this week.

Safety Tip of the Week

With the time change, it will be dark when the little ghosts and goblins might be roaming the streets Friday night. Hopefully the young monsters will have flashlights or lightsticks to make themselves more visible. Halloween is still a holiday for the young. Let's also keep it a safe one for them.

An open letter from Representative Jeff Mills to the voters of District 49

Dear Friends:

During my three years in Augusta, I have worked hard to learn the facts behind the issue at hand, and to cast my vote in the overall interest of our area. I will continue to represent you in this way if re-elected. I will listen to your concerns and will actively seek your views by attending town and community meetings, continuing my practice of holding constituent hours, and conducting questionnaires. I will keep you informed by sending frequent reports to the district through the newspapers and by mail. As always, I will be available to respond to your individual problems with state government.

I know that you expect your legislator to work hard, to be fair, and to fight for the needs of the area. This I pledged to do when first elected, when re-elected in 1984, and I renew my pledge to you for the upcoming term.

I respectfully ask for your vote on Tuesday, November 4.

Sincerely,
Jeff Mills,
State Representative
District 49
